

April SuperStar

William R. Claxton

Of

Christian County

The Kentucky Association of Conservation District Employees would like to recognize William R. Claxton of Christian County as the April SuperStar. Mr. Claxton is currently serving as the secretary/treasurer for the board. He has been with the district for 33 years. William is very active in attending all educational supervisor meetings and conventions. His big support goes to educating the children with knowledge about the outdoors and nature.

Mr. Claxton is a retiree from Southern States Petroleum. He is a dedicated member to the First Baptist Church in Hopkinsville. William and his wife, Nancy, have one son, Mark Claxton. Mark is with the NRCS in Ballard County where he is District Conservationist.

Mr. Claxton has always been an avid farmer. He always has a shining smile on his face-A perfect SuperStar!!!
